Design an input form for a mortgage advisor website: this requires a customer to enter their name, address including full postcode, employment status (employed, self-employed, retired, other), monthly income, total current debt, home ownership status (owner, renting, other), value of home if owned, savings, age.

For each field, identify what HTML form element could be used for its input, and what validation checks should be made on the data input.