1 Figure 1 shows the PSM: primary keys are introduced for each entity, and foreign keys to represent the associations.

Figure 1: PSM of travel agency system

2 There could be entity beans for each entity, or a single bean for Trip, since the other data is auxiliary to this. In the second case all use cases would be handled by a single session bean.